Committee staff, called to say that State Department had requested his informal views on H. R. 8291 which has to do with migration and escapee programs. Copies of the bill and the House Report (H. Rept. 1066) were forwarded to him. It was pointed out to [REDACTED] that H. R. 8291 is an Administration bill and that Secretary of State Rusk formally supported the bill as introduced. [REDACTED] indicated that from his standpoint, he preferred the language of the bill before it was amended by the House Judiciary Committee but that he had no serious objections to the amendments and was so advising State Department.
